Submission Checklist *

All submissions must meet the following requirements.

- In the event that the article passes the external double-blind anonymous review, the author agrees to provide Doxa Comunicación with an English version of the text. The English translations will be consistent and of high quality, so if the author is unable to do the translation by his/her own means, Doxa Comunicación will provide him/her with the contact of a professional translator with whom Doxa Comunicación works on a regular basis. The cost of the translation will be borne by the author. All texts in English will be proofread prior to publication.
- A year should pass from the date of publication of an article before an author can publish a new article in Doxa Comunicación.
- The consent of those who have contributed unpublished data, which have been obtained through verbal or written communication, has been obtained and their authorship is properly and explicitly identified.
